 - Practice Tests & Case Study Practice Prompts: www.councilforeconed.org/sample-tests/

The National Association of Secondary School Principals has placed this program on the 2016-2017 NASSP List of Approved Contests, Programs, and Activities for Students.

- Classroom Resources: www.councilforeconed.org/resources/type/classroom-resources - A collection of searchable econ related resources across content areas, for K-12 educators and students. Curriculum and resources include current event articles, mobile apps, and lessons to use in the classroom.
 - Capstone - Capstone: Exemplary Lessons for High School Economics is a supplemental program that uses hands-on activities, exercises, simulations and projects to teach your students the ins- and-outs of high school economics. Combined with your primary source curriculum, Capstone enhances your economics, business and marketing courses.
 - Virtual Economics (VE) - over 1,400 activity-based searchable lessons from more than 75 publications, 51 key economic concepts, and a glossary with over 500 terms. This is a resource every economics teacher should have. Plus, these boredom-proof resources give your students an active learning approach with interactive simulations, role playing activities and multimedia clips.
 - AP Economics - The 4th edition of AP Economics reflects the adjustments in the AP Course Outlines and Exams in the years since the publication of the 3rd edition. By dividing the macroeconomics and microeconomics teacher's manuals into two separate entities and compartmentalizing various elements, such as student activities solutions and sample multiple-choice question answer keys, the materials provide a more intuitive structure and easier navigation of content.

- Teaching Ethical Foundations of Economics – These lessons do more than illustrate how ethical conduct improves an economy. They actively involve the students through simulations, group decision making, problem solving, classroom demonstrations and role playing. The lessons encourage students to think critically about ethical dilemmas.
- EconEdLink: www.econedlink.org - EconEdLink is the leading source of online economic & personal finance lessons & resources for educators, students and afterschool providers. This site has a multitude of classroom lessons related to current economic events and other topics.
 - Featured Lessons, Current Events, Data Resources, Weblinks, Newsletter, Calendar of Historical Events, and Interactive Tools.
- Online Assessment Center – www.councilforeconed.org/resources/online-assessment-center/ - A free service where teachers can securely administer assessments, gain real-time data, and measure student knowledge and understanding of economic and personal finance concepts. In four easy steps teachers can use this service to analyze the efficacy of their instruction and modify their approach.

Federal Reserve Bank of St Louis - www.stlouisfed.org/education A comprehensive collection of K-12 lesson plans, activities, and multi-media resources for use in the classroom and beyond.
