

ECONOMIC EPISODES IN AMERICAN HISTORY

Mark C. Schug & William C. Wood

TEACHER WORKSHOP WEDNESDAY, JULY 26TH, 2017 LAMBEAU FIELD IN GREEN BAY 8:30 AM-3:00 PM BREAKFAST & LUNCH INCLUDED

Program:

No history of America is complete without an economic perspective. Economic Episodes in American History is an innovative textbook supplement for middle and high school levels that will enrich and expand your students' understanding of United States history and the role economics has played in shaping the American story.

Inclusions:

Each participant will receive 20 complimentary copies of the Economic Episodes in American History text for distribution and use in their American history classes AND a $150 stipend for attending the one-day program.

Complimentary hotel rooms provided at the Tundra Lodge in Green Bay for the evening of Tuesday, July 25th. Call to request a reservation under the Lakeland University block.

Topics:

WHY DID THE AMERICAN COLONISTS FIGHT WHEN THEY WERE SAFE, PROSPEROUS, AND FREE?

WHY DID THE BRITISH COLONIES PROSPER WITHOUT DISCOVERIES OF GOLD AND SILVER?

ECONOMICS OF THE CONSTITUTION: IS THE FEDERAL RESERVE CONSTITUTIONAL?

WHY DID A MILD RECESSION IN 1929 BECOME THE GREAT DEPRESSION OF THE 1930'S?

WHO DESEGREGATED MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL: ADAM SMITH OR JACKIE ROBINSON?

and more!

REGISTER TODAY -

E-mail Dr. Scott Niederjohn:

niederjohnms@lakeland.edu

(include school name, address, phone, & # of sections taught)

Hotel Reservations:
(920) 405-8700

